

NOTICE OF YOUR FINANCIAL PRIVACY RIGHTS

Information Sharing With Non-Affiliated Third Parties

Fidelity Bank collects nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms such as your name, address, assets and income;
- Information about your transactions with us our affiliates or others such as your account balance, payment history, and parties to transactions; and
- Information we obtain from a consumer report, such as credit history.

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

We do not disclose nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.

The Confidentiality and Security Of Your Nonpublic Personal Information

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

If you decide to close your account(s) or become an inactive customer, we will adhere to the privacy policies and practices described in this notice.
